

The Singing Snippets

Edition #8
November 2018

Motown magic

The audience was dazzled and amazed by our jaunty Motown extravaganza. Talented soloists from the Song Company thrilled us with their debut performances and toes tapped madly to the rhythm of the band.

The Beehive Extremes shocked us with fluoro hair and outfits that matched raunchy numbers followed by Kathleen (Cherlee Not) and her sassy act.

The suave performance of the Hutchins barbershop quartet wooed us all with smooth numbers.

Celebrations continue

It's beginning to sound a bit like Christmas at Wesley Hall as we rehearse for our next performance.

"Joy to the World"

3pm Saturday 1st December at the Uniting Church, Bellerive

Join us in celebration of Christmas as we sing a mix of traditional and Australian carols. Childhood memories will be aroused as we sing songs by William James and John Wheeler such as Carol of the Birds (you know, 'Out on the plains, the brolgas are dancing'), Three Drovers ('Across the plains one Christmas night, three drovers riding blithe and gay'), or Christmas Day ('The north wind is tossing the leaves, the red dust is over the town').

Highlights of the day will surely be the Hutchins Barbershop and the choir singing the first ever Australian Christmas Carol.

Come join us in festive song.

A Not So Silent Night

Our last performance for this year will be at Glenorchy Carols by Candlelight: A Not So Silent Night on 8 December at Tolosa Park, Glenorchy.

We've been performing at these carols every year since they've begun! This year, we will be singing some traditional carols with the Glenorchy City Concert Brass Band. Bring your picnic blanket, your picnic and your voice to sing along!

Next Year

Our 30th Anniversary will not pass unmarked in 2019. Some of our current singers began in the Tasmanian Song Company when Penelope Bruce launched the choir in 1989. We've benefitted from the expertise of many talented musical directors and accompanists over the years, our repertoire changing according to tastes and talents of our musicians and singers. Join us in a pearler of a year as we celebrate our past and future.
